God's Will Can Be Understood

Many think that the Bible cannot be understood. Yet, God's will can be understood!

We are commanded to understand. "Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is" (Eph. 5:17).

When we read, we may understand. "Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ" (Eph. 3:4).

Those in the Old Testament understood. "So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading" (Neh. 8:8). If they could understand the book of God then, surely we can come to understand it today!

Timothy knew the Scriptures from a child. "And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus" (2 Tim. 3:15). If Timothy was able to know the Scriptures from a child, then surely we can come to know and understand them as well!

When we understand, we will understand alike. Students are given a book to read and study. When the exam is given, they are expected to arrive at the same answer. $2+2=4$ is true anywhere, anytime, for anybody. It is no different with the word of God (1 Cor. 1:10).

We invite you to study the Bible with us!
